

PEROSH Workshop 'Future OSH Priorities and the role of research' on Monday 20 June 2011 at Hanasaari

The Partnership for European Research in Occupational Safety and Health organizes a Workshop 'Future OSH Priorities and the role of research' within the context of OH&S Forum 2011.

Date: 20 June 2011

Time: 12.30 - 14.00

Venue: Congress hall Aleksis, Hanasaari Cultural Centre, Espoo, Finland

Contact person:

Nele Roskams, European Affairs Coordinator, PEROSH

Programme

Chair: Didier Baptiste, Chairman of PEROSH, Scientific Director of Institut National de Recherche et de Sécurité

12.30 - 12.35 Welcome

12.35 - 12.50 Working environment challenges of the future: Output of the Copenhagen Seminar

Palle Ørbaek, Director General of NRCWE and Former Chairman of the Partnership for European Research in Occupational Safety and Health (PEROSH)

12.50 - 13.05 How to identify research priorities in OSH

Sergio Iavicoli, Director of INAIL Occupational Medicine Department and Secretary General of International Commission of Occupational Health (ICOH)

13.05 - 13.20 Fostering OSH research co-ordination: Contribution to a 2013-2020 strategy?

Eusebio Rial González, Head of the Prevention and Research Unit, European Agency for Safety and Health at Work

13.20 - 13.35 Who is getting benefit of OSH Research?

Raili Perimäki, Central Organisation of Finnish Trade Unions (SAK)

13.35 - 13.50 Future OSH priorities and the role of research. View of BusinessEurope

Kris De Meester, Chairman of BusinessEurope's Health and Safety Working Group

13.50 - 14.00 Conclusions